St. James's, May 12.

AN Humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich in Common Council aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Waller Bacon and Robert Britteffe, Eſqs; the Repreſentatives in Parliament of that City, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Townſhend, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Stockholm, April 19. On the 13th Inſtant in the Morning an Expreſs arrived from Griſſehaven, with an Account that the Plenipotentiaries of this Crown for the Conferences to be held at Neuſtadt, put again to Sea on the 11th in the Evening; and as the Wind continued ſome time fair, it is reckoned they got over to Abland the next Day. On the 13th the King reviewed the four Regiments of Infantry which were then come to this Place; and the ſame Evening moſt of the Field-Marſhals, Generals, and principal Officers of the Army that are now here, had the Honour to ſup with his Majeſty at a Houſe near the Park where thoſe Regiments were muſtered. The next Day the Provincial Regiment of the Eaſt-Goths arrived alſo at this Place. It is ſaid, that the whole Number of Troops which are already here or on the March hither, amount to twenty eight Battalions, and above 5000 Horſe. The 17th Inſtant being the King of Sweden's Birthday, when his Majeſty entred into his 47th Year, he was complimented in the Morning by a great Number of Perſons of Diſtinction on that Occaſion; and in the Evening there was a very ſplendid Appearance and Ball at the Palace: On the ſame Occaſion, and by the Queen's Direction, there was Yeſterday a French Comedy acted by the young Gentlemen and Ladies of the Court. The Senators, foreign Miniſters, and moſt Perſons of Note in Town were invited to ſee it; and the greateſt Part of the Company were alſo afterwards invited to a ſecond Ball at Court, which laſted till this Morning.

From on board the Sandwich at Copenhagen, April 29, O. S. The Fleet of His Majeſty's Ships commanded by Admiral Norris, arrived here Yeſterday in the Evening: In the Paſſage we had bad Weather, which ſeparated three of our Ships from the reſt, but they are now come in hither. As the Admiral paſſed Gottenbourg, he ſent an Expreſs to the King of Sweden, to acquaint his Majeſty with his being come upon the Coaſt; and as he paſſed Elſeneur he received a Letter from his Swediſh Majeſty dated the 15th Inſtant. The Admiral deſigns to make Uſe of the firſt Opportunity of Wind, to proceed to the Iſland of Hano near Carlſcroon, to join the Swediſh Fleet. P. S. The Wind being juſt now at Eight a-Clock in the Evening come fair, we are getting ready to ſail to Morrow Morning early.

Turin, May 14. Yeſterday the King of Sardinia went to the Veneria, in order to paſs the Summer there. The Marqueſs of Villaclara, late Deputy from the Iſland of Sardinia, and now Governour in chief of that Kingdom, ſet out ſome Days ago on his Return thither. This is the King of Sardinia's Birthday, which his Majeſty paſſes in Retirement in the Chartreux, it being his Cuſtom to avoid receiving Compliments on that Occaſion.

Paris, May 21. An Expreſs arrived here on the 15th Inſtant in the Evening with the News, that on the 8th Inſtant Cardinal Conti, a Roman, was choſen Pope, and had taken the Name of Innocent the 13th: He was made a Cardinal in 1707, and is 63 Years old. Lettres de Cachet are ſent to ſeveral Doctors of the Sorbonne, who have lately renewed their Appeal from the Pope's Conſtitution, to retire to divers Places in France; and Dom Thierry, a Benedictine, is baniſhed the Kingdom. Mr. William Laws was carried from the Baſtile to Verſailles on the 16th, to be preſent at the taking off the Seals from his Effects ſeized there, and making an Inventory of them: The ſame Day he was removed to Fort l'Eveque. The Earl of Portmore arrived here Yeſterday from Spain, on his Way to England.

St. James's, May 7.

Whereas Information hath this Day been given to His Majeſty in Council, that Mr. Levermore, Superviſor of the Riding Officers at Lydd, together with ſome other Officers under his Inſpection, did on the 17th of March laſt, apprehend one Jacob Walter a notorious Owler and Smugler, who ſome time ſince broke out of the Fleet Priſon, to which Place he had been committed by Meſne Proceſs for tranſporting of Wooll to France, together with one Thomas Bigg, who is alſo a noted Smugler; and that with the Aſſiſtance of a Conſtable they ſecured the ſaid Walter and Bigg at the George Inn in Lydd till the 19th, when the Officers were in a riotous Manner aſſaulted by ſeveral armed Men, who fired upon them, and by Violence reſcued the ſaid Walter and Bigg: Theſe are therefore to give Notice, that whoever ſhall diſcover the ſaid Jacob Walter, aged about 40 Years, a tall Man, longiſh Face, ruddy Complexion, ſtout, well made, wearing a light Wig, and Thomas Bigg about the ſame Age, a ſhort little Man, round Viſage, wearing a black Wig, or any of the following Perſons, who were concerned in the reſcuing the ſaid Walter and Bigg, viz. Francis Norwood, Gib Jarvis, alias Tomkin, who is ſaid to be ſhot through the Arm in reſcuing the ſaid Walter and Bigg, Edward Jarvis, alias Tomkin, Edward Gibbon, Thomas Stroker, Alexander Green, John Humphreys, or any other Perſon concerned in the ſaid Reſcue, or any of them, ſo as they may be apprehended and convicted, ſhall receive the Reward of 40 l. for each of them, to be paid upon ſuch Conviction by the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury; and in caſe any of the Offenders therein ſhall make ſuch Diſcovery (other than the ſaid Walter) that he, or they, will have His Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.
